FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 2016

7-8 PM - Convening Check In + Cocktail Hour

Location: Glenn Hughes Penthouse Theatre Lobby, University of Washington School of Drama

8-10 PM - LTC Pacific Northwest Convening Opening Ceremonies

Location: Glenn Hughes Penthouse Theatre, University of Washington

What: The 2016 Pacific Northwest Convening will begin with a session reflecting on the history of Latina/o theatre in the Pacific Northwest and celebrating the legacy of Maria Irene Fornés.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 2016

9-11:30 AM - Interactive Conversation Part 1: Making Connections

Location: Glenn Hughes Penthouse Theatre, University of Washington School of Drama

What: Join us for the first part of a two day conversation about the growing Latina/o Theatre Movement in the US. We will be making connections with people from across the region, finding similarities, and beginning conversations about the issues in our communities.

7:30-9:30 PM - Local Seattle Theatre Production (Shows TBA)

Location: TBA

What: Join the LTC National Steering Committee and your fellow conveners for a night of theatre in Seattle. We will be announcing the show(s) very soon, so stay tuned!

10 PM-12 AM - Late Night Party

Location: TBA

What: After a day of conversations and theatre, let loose with your fellow conveners at a local Seattle restaurant. We will be announcing the venue very soon, so stay tuned!

SUNDAY, APRIL 17, 2016

3-6 PM - Interactive Conversation Part 2: Moving Forward

Location: Glenn Hughes Penthouse Theatre, University of Washington School of Drama

What: Part two of this conversation will center on reflecting what we've learned, connections we've forged, and commitments we can all make to further Latina/o theatre in our communities.
